FOREWORD

Graduation is the first in a succession of goals that we must strive for during life. This is our greatest break with the familiar things of childhood. For now we must venture into the unfamiliar, and sometimes hostile world, for which we have been preparing during the past 12 years. Through these pages, we hope to capture forever our years at W.B.H.S. to remember the lessons we have learned, academic and otherwise, which have prepared us well to work in, learn in, shape, and lead the world which our generation will so shortly inherit.

OUR DEDICATEE

In the classroom

The Class of 1968 proudly dedicates this Climber to Mr. Kaiser Shahdan. His warmth, his friendliness, his good cheer, and his sense of humor have brightened many a day at West Bridgewater High. We stand in awe and gratitude at his never-ending enthusiasm and willingness to help. As we drive down the road of life, we will always recall his perceptiveness, not only in regard to driving, but also in regard to life. And, so to you, Mr. Shahdan, we dedicate this, our Climber.

SUPERINTENDENT

Dear Graduate:

A teacher's job encompasses various duties; he or she serves as a guide, a counselor, a disciplinarian, a model, an interpreter, a challenger, a motivator, an evaluator, a leader, an idealist, even a dreamer, plus other capacities. These responsibilities are a great factor in making our work so challenging, and in the long run, so enjoyably worthwhile.

While setting down the above components of teaching I purposely omitted the overall objective is to prepare the student to be able to carry on when the teacher is no longer available. Similar to a parent's responsibility we are preparing you to take your place on your own two feet when you are separated from your parents and teachers.

This is a large order. With the wonderful and rapid changes taking place in our great nation and the world, it is impossible to fulfill it completely. Accordingly, we, teachers and your parents, have tried to content ourselves with helping you to be in a receptive state of mind ready to recognize and able to cope with the challenges of the future. We feel you are ready to think before you act too impulsively, to be sensitive to the needs and rights of others, to consider the many sides present in most problems, and thus to accept your responsibility as a contributing citizen of a free society.

Do not interpret the above as meaning we feel we are no longer available to help if needed. That thought is farthest from our mind. Actually, we want you to continue to grow as you proceed more on your own but to call on us when you feel we may assist. Thank you for your help, your cooperation, and God bless you.

Sincerely,
DONALD A. FISHER,
Superintendent of Schools

PRINCIPAL

To the Class of 1968

You have now completed the first twelve years of your education. At this time you may not realize it, but you will look back on these years as the most enjoyable in your life. The adult world, which you are entering, cares little whether you pass or fail. Success is your own problem. Help comes occasionally, not often; and frequently you will be competing with many others for the same position.

Hopefully, West Bridgewater High School has contributed some knowledge which will be helpful in the future, but most important of all are the values you have derived from your association with this school. The ability to get along with others and society in general is the primary problem to be encountered. Almost equally important is being able to use good judgment when faced with decisions and being a responsible citizen.

You have a good start in life, but never stop learning or regression will result. From now on the responsibility is yours.

Sincerely,
THOMAS G. BURDIN, JR.

The 1967 football team ended the season with a record of 0 wins and 9 losses. The team was hurt by graduation as many starters were lost. Bright points of the season were the outstanding pass combination of Wayne MacDonald and Joe Perry, and the "never say die" attitude of the team. A better season is looked forward to next year with many returning starters and the upcoming freshmen.

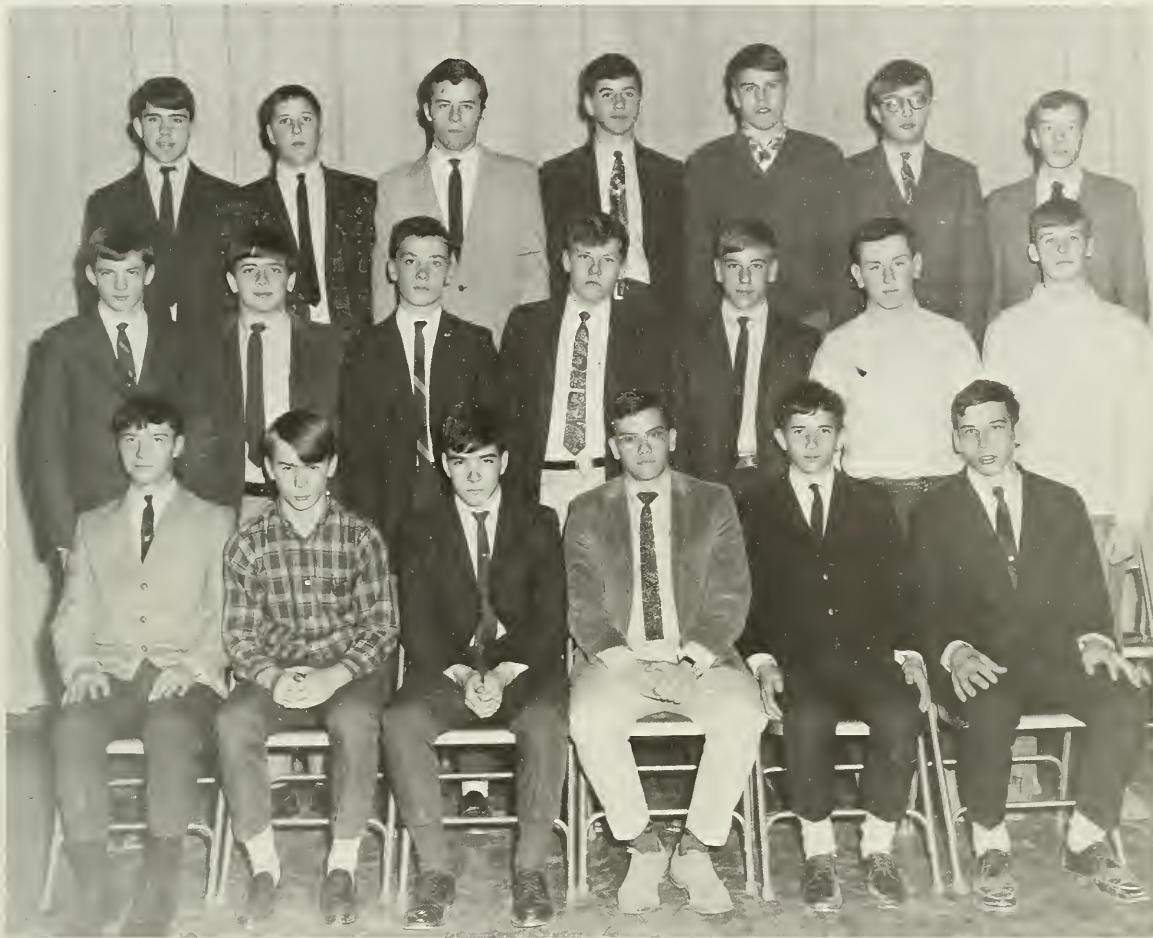

The 1967 J.V. Football team completed a season full of disappointments. The team finished with a record of 2 wins and 4 losses, 3 of which were by deficits of less than 12 points. The J.V. players who battled through this season will be the varsity Wildcats of tomorrow.

Special thanks go to Coach Harrington for the inspiration and sincerity he gave to all the players.

The Junior High Football team enjoyed a very good season winning four games and losing only one. Coaches Nichols and Strondack gave a great deal more than just spirit to a team that shows much promise for the future. Outstanding players were Ed Zamaitas, Steve Pike, Dan Currie, Jack Hamilton, Kevin O'Brien, Rick Ness, Peter Carlson, and Gene DeVine.

... as of February 15, 1968

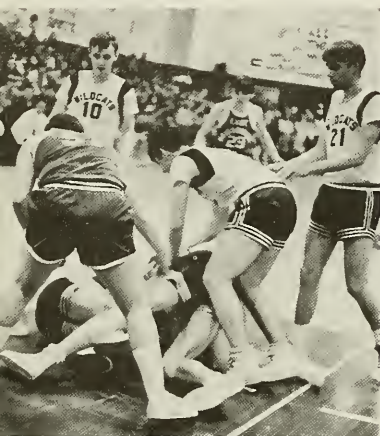

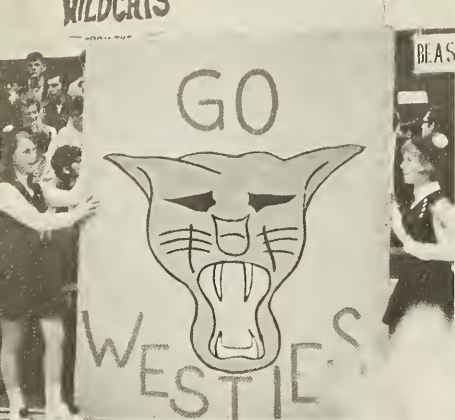

The 1968 West Bridgewater High School basketball team was truly triumphant, to say the least. Adding to the record of 18 straight wins in the 1967 season, they clinched the South Shore League Championship and became the Western Division Champs of that year. The key to their success was a strong defense, for which they soon became known.

The team, led by All-Scholastic and Captain Cully Ohlson has worked hard to earn these recognitions.

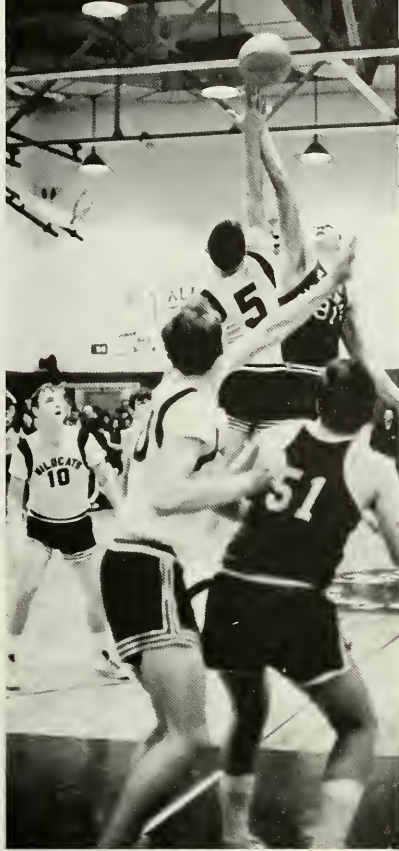

Special thanks go to Coaches Sargent and Chapman for their work in getting the team off to a winning lead and holding it.

TRACK

The track season at W.B.H.S. during the year of 1967 was a promising one. As always, thanks goes to the coach, Mr. James Anderson, for his endless time given.

The season's record symbolizes the roundness of strength, hard work, and good attitude which was practiced by all of the athletes. We are proud of the strong minds and bodies which represented West Bridgewater High School during the track season.

The 1967 baseball team enjoyed a great year, winning the western division of the South Shore League with a record of 10 wins and 6 losses. Capturing the title was a first for a W.B.H.S. baseball team. Mr. Rapp's excellent coaching, teamwork, and team spirit were the key to the good year.

The Girls Field Hockey Team completed the season with a record of 2 wins, 5 losses, and 2 ties. Although this may not seem very impressive, the spirit was continually high and there was always strong individual effort. Because the majority of the squad will return next year, the girls are looking forward to an undefeated season.

First Row: P. Conniff, C. Asack, K. Seablom, N. Ohlson; Second Row: S. Cranshaw, S. Bowman, B. Cox, D. MacDonald, M. Gallagher.

GIRL'S BASKETBALL '67-68

Although this year's girls basketball team wasn't terribly successful, ending with a record of 5 wins and 4 losses, team spirit was in abundance. Since the team is mainly composed of underclassmen, the prospects for next year are bright.

SOFTBALL '67

The girls' softball team was mostly composed of underclassmen. On account of this fact, it is obvious that the team was inexperienced; but this did not interfere with the girls' ability to play. The girls' spirit was always high and a better season is hoped for next year.

EDITORIAL

We came, as many before us had and many after us will, children through the fire doors of higher education, and now we emerge through those same doors young adults, hopeful and eager for life. These years have served as our years of discovery: of ourselves and the world around us.

Our Junior High years were important in those discoveries, bridging the gap between childhood and adolescence. Who could forget getting lost, just one of the many hazards of these forbidding corridors? There were, of course, other hazards to be met, such as falling tiles, the leaking roof, and Mr. Renaud's "Board of Education."

And then, when we were in the eighth grade, we went through the experience of a national grief: The assassination of President Kennedy; none of us will forget that.

Most of us survived, however, to become Freshmen. That was the year that the World History classes went to New York. That was also the year that Cully was the "Freshman wonder" of the football team.

In our Sophomore year, the Latin classes at least will not soon forget the altruism of the teachers who took the responsibility and the time to accompany them to Washington. They revealed amazing courage!

Who can forget our basketball team of the past two years? . . . the excitement when we're playing a good team that sometimes leads to brawls, or the near boredom of "another win" when the opposing team can't compare to ours.

When was the last time a Senior class had a musical instead of a play? Long live Finian's Rainbow.

The past two years have marked the culmination of Hippiedom, which can't help but influence us. We listen to "The Jefferson Airplane," the "Ultimate Spinach," we think "Love," though we know we must practice "war." "Mod" clothes appear at school, with an amazing result: the dress regulations (1932) have been revised!

These past six years have gone so quickly! Let's hope that the rest of life doesn't go so fast, or that we have at least learned to live it every moment.

We, the class of 1968, leave West Bridgewater High School, taking with us many memories. Some we will never forget, some we will want to forget; but all have left indelible marks upon our personalities.

Mr. Robert Dennis, Advisor

It is impossible to close the Climber without giving recognition to its two advisors, Mr. Dennis and Mrs. Kent, and the other faculty members and students who gave so willingly of their time.

To the following people we, the Climber Staff, would like to extend our most warm-hearted thanks: Mrs. Ring for her endless time spent on proofreading; Mrs. Laughton, Mrs. Eliason, and Mr. Reed for donating their time after school to advise us when Mr. Dennis was not able to be present; Terry Welch, although only a Junior, for his unlimited contributions to this publication; and Kathy Seablom and Paul Welch for their assistance in the field of sports.
